1. Brand Standards

I will protect the FBL brand and use all assets exactly as defined in the official brand kit.

- [ ] I will use only official FBL logo files and will not recreate, redraw, or modify the mark in any way.
- [ ] I will not apply effects (shadows, outlines, gradients), distort proportions, or alter spacing around the FBL logo.
- [ ] I understand the color rule: Midnight Navy (#0F111E) is used on white backgrounds only, and the white logo is used on dark/high-contrast backgrounds.
- [ ] I will ensure the logo is always high-contrast and immediately recognizable; if the background reduces visibility, it will not be used.
- [ ] I will use approved typography standards, including Le Monde Livre Cla Std for primary brand type treatment.
- [ ] I understand chapters may not create sub-logos, alternate marks, icons, crests, or taglines under the FBL name.

2. Chapter Identity

I will represent FBL consistently across markets while preserving one unified identity.

- [ ] I will follow the naming standard: FBL – [City / Region] and will not use nicknames or alternate formats.
- [ ] I understand FBL is not a referral club or sales organization; messaging must reflect leadership, trust, and integrity.
- [ ] I will not make promises of referrals, deals, ROI, or transactional outcomes as part of FBL membership.

3. Nonprofit Compliance

I will protect FBL's nonprofit standing and ensure activities remain aligned with permissible purposes and conduct.

- [ ] I will not use FBL platforms, events, channels, or branding to support or oppose political candidates, parties, or campaigns.
- [ ] I will not organize lobbying activity under the FBL name or represent FBL as endorsing political positions.
- [ ] I will not use FBL funds or resources for personal benefit, private inurement, or non-approved expenses.
- [ ] I will escalate any compliance concerns, reputational risks, or boundary questions to central leadership before acting.

Standard: If the activity could create political, legal, financial, or reputational risk, it must be cleared first.

4. Communications & Public Representation

I will represent FBL with professional language and a leadership-first tone.

- [ ] I will keep communications professional—no hype, no pressure, no manipulative recruiting language.
- [ ] I will not use FBL channels to air grievances, create division, or target individuals or groups.
- [ ] I will avoid content that implies endorsements, sponsorships, or "official

- [ ] I will avoid content that implies endorsements, sponsorships, or "official partnerships" unless approved by central leadership.
- [ ] I understand faith is expressed through values and conduct; messaging should remain inclusive, clear, and leadership-focused.

5. Member Data & Privacy

I will protect member trust by handling data responsibly.

- [ ] I will not export, sell, share, or misuse member contact information for solicitation or non-FBL purposes.
- [ ] I will use only approved systems/processes for member communications and onboarding.
- [ ] If a privacy concern or data breach risk occurs, I will report it immediately to central leadership.

6. Meetings, Culture & Member Experience

I will protect the culture by ensuring gatherings are leadership-first—not transactional.

- [ ] I will not run FBL meetings as pitch sessions, forced introductions, or sales funnels.
- [ ] I will not impose attendance quotas or pressure tactics; FBL respects time and responsibility.
- [ ] I will prioritize conversation, trust, and shared insight from experienced operators.
- [ ] I will address issues directly and professionally, escalating when necessary to protect the culture.

7. Governance & Enforcement

I accept the responsibility of leadership and the enforcement standard required to scale FBL responsibly.

- [ ] I understand central leadership has final approval authority for anything representing FBL publicly.
- [ ] I understand non-compliant assets may be removed immediately and may require revision before use.
- [ ] I understand repeated or willful violations may impact chapter standing or leadership role.
- [ ] I will model these standards personally and ensure my team is aligned with them.
